Literally on Fire with Eczema Screaming and Clawing all

Entirely Cured by Cuticura. Nov Stout and Hearty.

Our little baby, almost 2! years old, was taken with some form of Eczema when she was about three months old. Her little body was one solid red from the soles of her feet to the crowa of her head, and she seemed to be literally affre, scraming, and clawing all the time. When she was about five months old, there was added to her affliction, abscesses and suppuration. We tried the local M. D.'s, and some other remedies without any relief. I had read considerable about the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and one of our neighbors had used them, claiming that they were as good as claimed. I concluded to try them, and after the use of three or four boxes of CUTICURA, and about one and one half bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVEST, with the CUTICURA SOAR, our little one is now entirely cured, and is stout and hearty. Your CUTICURA REMEMBERS are all and more than you claim them to be. I always have a good word to my friends and neighbors for your excellent remedies.

The president was visiting Luous in connection with the international exhibition. His carriage was being driven slowly along in front of the Palais de Ene de la Republique, still following the facade of the palace. When halfway down the street, which was lined with onthusinstic crowds of people who were loudly cheering, a Carnot was waiving his right hand and saluting with his hat in his left hand in response to the ovation that was given him by the crowd. The peo-ple close to the carriage saw the standing on the step had a knife in hand. By the glare of the electric lights they saw the bright blade gleam in the air, as the assassin's arm descended, and then President Carnot was seen to fall back in his sent, deathly pale. One of his hands was pressed to his heart, where the steel ad entered his body. M. Rivaud, prefect of Lyons, who was seated by President Carnot, immediately struck the assassin a blow full in the face and knocked him from the step, thus preventing the man from again stabbing the president, which it was his evident intention to do. Instantly cries of "The president is

A SCORE DROWNED.

Disaster to a New York Excursion Party. Boat Swamped and More Than Twent;

of the Passengers Drowned-Fatal

River Horror. NEW YORK, June 26.—The tug James D. Nichol, with sixty-three excursion ists and a crew of ten or twelve, sank at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon 3 miles off the Highlands. Fifty-four of those on board have been accounted for, the rest were probably drowned. The tug left Fifth street and East river at 7:30 in the morning, touched at pier 3, East river, and then went o to the fishing grounds. She had, it is said, a license to carry fifty passengers, but sixty-three tickets were sold. There was a bar and a lunch counter on board, whose attendants, with the crew, made the total number on board seventy-five. The tug reached the banks on time, but the fishing was poor and the sea too rough for comfort and about noon she started back.

When about 3 miles east of the Highlands and about 4 miles south of Scotland lightship the waves began to break heavily over her starboard rail. To dodge the water and wind the pas-sengers began to run around to the port side and to climb on top of the deckhouse. The boat careened alarm-ingly to port and the water swept in over the rail. The terrorstricken men rushed back to starboard and the tug swung deeply down on that side. At the same moment a num-ber of heavy breakers struck the boat in quick succession. The captain, William Hyatt, stuck pluckily to his post and sounded the whistle in a pro-longed scream for help. Even as he did so the tug filled with the water that poured into her from both sides, and sank out of sight in the water. She went down like a stone, carrying many of the passengers with her.

The water choked the cry of the whistle, but not before it had been heard and heeded. The Clyde steamand Governor also hurried to the spot. From further away came the C. E. Evarts, too late to be of service.

A few hours after sinking the tug was pretty well broken up and the wreckage began to come ashore. Be-fore dark the entire beach was strewn with it. Forty-three lunch baskets were washed up. No bodies have come Condensed Report of the Week's Proceed ings in the Senate and House. WEDNESDAY.

WASHINGTON, June 21.-The se nade rapid progress on the tariff bill yesterday, the main provisions of the bill having been disposed of and the income tax schedule reached. The ugar schedule was quickly adopted when reached, which was somewhat of a surprise, as a fight had been expected. When the income tax was reached Mr. Peffer gave notice of an amend-ment for a graduated tax, running rom 1 per cent. on $1,000 to 5 per cent on $100,000. Soon after 4 o'clock the senate adjourned.

The house continued its work on the anti-option bill and agreed to take a final vote on Friday.

WASHINGTON, June 22.-After preminary work the senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill yesterday Mr. Hill (N. Y.) made a lengthy argument against the income tax. Mr. Allen (Neb.) made a vigorous speech in which he handled very severely Sena-tor Chandler's accusation that he (Allen) made a bargain to vote for the bill consideration of free lumber. Mr. handler retorted in a spirited speech. The debate on the income tax was lively and occupied the entire day. Mr. Peffer's graduated tax amendment was defeated. emperature, but the debate was warm in the senate yesterday. Senators Al-len and Hill had a tilt; so did the latter and Senator Harris, and Senator Call (Fla.) shocked the dignity of the senate by taking off his shoes and exhibiting the color of his stockings with his feet on his desk. However, a bill passed for the relief of St. Charles (Mo.) college, being payment for property taken during the war, and also the bill making labor day a legal holiday. Mr. Kyle spoke in favor of the income tax, so did Mr. Teller. Mr. Sherman op-posed it. Messrs. Allen (Neb.), Walsh Ga.) and Jarvis (N. C.) favored it. At 5 o'clock Mr. Hill asked for an adjournment, but Mr. Harris opposed the mo tion, which led to a severe tilt between the two senators, pending which the quorum vanished and the senate ad-

The house further considered Mr. Hatch's anti-option bill and after several amendments the bill was passed—149 yeas to 87 nays. When the house met a message from the president was received giving of-ficially the fact of the assassination of the French president. Resolutions of sympathy were offered by Mr. Mc-Creary, and after speeches they were adopted and the house adjourned.

TUESDAY. WASHINGTON, June 27.-The senate entered upon the thirteenth week of the tariff debate yesterday. Mr. Hill continued his opposition to the income tax by offering various amendments. Several committee amendments were accepted but Mr. Hill's were rejected. At 6:30 the senate adjourned.

The house passed the bill making labor day a legal holiday and the elections committee made two reports on the Moore-Funston contest from the Second Kansas district. The majority report favors the scating of Moore. The minority report, signed only by republicans, favored Funston. The house then further considered the deficiency bill and adjourned at 5:10
